WHERE YOUR HEART BEATS

A house that tells a story, ready to host yours.

Welcome to the childhood home of Chef Antonino Cannavacciuolo, in the heart of the Sorrento Peninsula. Immersed in a natural symphony of scents and memories, Laqua Countryside lies among the hills of Vico Equense.

A farmhouse steeped in history, in the land that has bewitched artists and poets of every century.

You may even still smell the aromas of Grandma Fiorentina's ragout in the air, in the kitchen where Antonino took his first steps.

A nest to explore. The hospitality of a family.

LIVE THE MOMENT

Nestled amidst the strength of the sea and the stillness of the hillside, we become a place brimming with inspiration, a haven filled with new energy.

The unseen side of the Sorrento Peninsula, a house surrounded by nature, and the care of the territory ... at Laqua Countryside, Nature sets the beat of the day, providing a complete connection with the purest life.

The large vegetable garden is the vibrant heart of the resort. Together with the orchard, the garden becomes the dynamic, creative engine of the brigade, as well as a corner for the guests to enjoy.

It is the perfect venue for memorable getaways, private celebrations, and corporate travel.

INDULGE IN THE LUXURY OF EXCLUSIVITY

It is possible to rent the entire location for your events.

The main structure of the residence has six bedrooms, where its design forms a dialogue between vintage heirlooms and contemporary touches.

Six characters who played a part in the Chef's childhood come to life in a narrative that unfolds through the objects, furniture, and Italian marble found in each room.

The Suites are on 2 floors, with large terraces overlooking the beautiful wisteria pergola, the farmyard and the endless Sorrento hills.

Guests can also enjoy the outdoor pool with a lounge area for drinks and light snacks, perfect for moments of utter bliss and peace.

You can see the sea on the horizon from the Marina Suite, a Neapolitan melody lingering in the air, and the excitement of the setting sun that creates changing shades every day. This is the feeling guests will experience at every turn.

STAY ON THE GULF OF SORRENTO

Laqua Countryside is not the only gem in the Cannavacciolo Group, where you can enjoy the magical setting of Sorrento.

Laqua by the Sea, just 7 km away, has 6 spectacular rooms overlooking the Gulf of Sorrento, where the sea and sky melt into one. You can exclusively book both resorts to enhance your stay in this beautiful region of timeless colors and traditions.

MICHELIN-STAR CUISINE FOR YOUR SPECIAL EVENTS

Your exclusive experience at Laqua Countryside can be even better by enjoying the cuisine of our Michelin 1-star restaurant.

There are two unique and connected areas. The indoor dining room is carved out of the limestone rock typical of the peninsula, with small niches filled with handcrafted characters. The bright outdoor dining area plays with its surrounding landscape, revealing corners of wondrous beauty here and there between the arches of the loggia and the verdant wisteria pergola.

In Laqua Countryside's restaurant, guests get to witness the culinary evolution of Chef Cannavacciuolo and the passing of the torch to a fresh, creative and Neapolitan Chef, Nicola Somma. He and his crew will tend to your every request. They will prepare dedicated menus, always with a particular focus on the territory.

The intimate surroundings of the restaurant are available for special banquets, a quick business lunch or a gala evening with a maximum of 44 guests.

The gourmet nuances of Laqua Countryside's cuisine are limitless. Even your private events along the Sorrento and Amalfi coasts can enjoy Michelin-starred catering services.
